SSC JHT 2024: Steps to Admit Card Corrections

- Reach out to the SSC Regional/Sub-Regional Office: In the event of identifying any errors or discrepancies in your admit card, the initial step is to contact the SSC Regional or Sub-Regional Office responsible for organizing the examination. The contact details for the respective offices can be found on the official SSC website.
- Clarify the Concern: When reaching out to the SSC office, clearly articulate the specific issues or errors present in your admit card. Explicitly state the corrections needed, whether it pertains to your name, date of birth, photograph, or exam centre details. Be prepared to provide supporting documents that validate the corrections you are requesting.
- Provide Evidential Documents: In many instances, the SSC office may request documentary evidence to support your correction request. For example, if there is a misspelling in your name, you might need to submit a copy of a valid ID with the correct spelling. Ensure that you have all the necessary documents ready.
- Adhere to Instructions: The SSC office will furnish you with instructions on how to proceed with the correction process. This might involve submitting an application or documents or personally visiting their office. Adhere closely to their guidance throughout the correction process.
- Maintain Documentation: Keep a record of all communication with the SSC office, including emails, letters, or receipts for any submitted documents. This documentation can prove valuable in the event of any future issues or discrepancies.
- Verify the Updated Admit Card: Following the completion of the correction process, it is essential to download and verify the updated admit card. This step ensures that all corrections have been accurately incorporated.
