ISRO and ASA Collaborate on the Gaganyaan Mission

ISRO and the Australian Space Agency (ASA) have signed an Implementation Agreement to support India's Gaganyaan mission, focusing on crew and crew module recovery. This collaboration, formalized on November 20, 2024, ensures safe astronaut recovery during contingencies, particularly near Australian waters. ASA will assist with search and rescue operations in case of an ascent-phase abort. The partnership strengthens India-Australia space cooperation, with both agencies committed to future collaborations beyond Gaganyaan, enhancing strategic ties in space exploration.

Cyclone Fengal: Tamil Nadu to Experience Heavy Rains

Cyclone Fengal, developing in the Bay of Bengal, is expected to intensify into a depression by November 24 and may strengthen into a cyclonic storm by November 25. The system will bring heavy rainfall to southern Tamil Nadu from November 25–27, with gusty winds and isolated heavy rain in surrounding areas. Unlike Cyclone Dana, which impacted Odisha, Fengal is predicted to move towards Sri Lanka or southern Tamil Nadu, shifting typical cyclone paths in the Bay of Bengal during November.

Honouring the Ninth Sikh Guru's Sacrifice

Guru Tegh Bahadur, the ninth Sikh Guru, is remembered for his sacrifice and bravery. His Martyrdom Day, observed on November 24, commemorates his refusal to convert to Islam under Mughal emperor Aurangzeb in 1675, leading to his beheading. Known as the "Shield of India," Guru Tegh Bahadur's stand for religious freedom and human rights remains a symbol of courage and justice. His teachings, included in the Guru Granth Sahib, continue to inspire values of equality and compassion. Several Gurudwaras honour his legacy.

Mali's military-led government has replaced Prime Minister Choguel Maiga with Abdoulaye Maiga

On November 21, 2024, Mali's military junta dismissed Prime Minister Choguel Maiga, replacing him with Abdoulaye Maiga, the junta's spokesperson. The move follows Choguel Maiga's criticism of the junta's failure to organize elections within the promised 24-month timeline, which angered the ruling generals. Abdoulaye Maiga's appointment signals the junta's attempt to consolidate power amidst growing internal dissent. Mali's delayed transition to democracy, marked by the indefinite postponement of elections, has sparked widespread criticism.

Gwalior introduces India's first self-sustaining Gaushala with a modern CBG plant

Prime Minister Narendra Modi inaugurated India's first self-sufficient gaushala in Gwalior, featuring a state-of-the-art Compressed Bio-Gas (CBG) plant. The Adarsh Gaushala processes 100 tons of cattle dung daily, producing 2-3 tons of bio-CNG and 10-15 tons of bio-manure. This Rs. 31 crore initiative, a collaboration with Indian Oil Corporation, promotes sustainable waste management, green energy, and organic farming. It also offers employment opportunities and contributes to climate goals, serving as a model for future projects across India.
