

49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) - Shaping Modern Policing

The 49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC), organized by the Uttarakhand Police, has commenced with the theme of "Policing in Amrit Kaal." This annual event, held under the auspices of the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D), brings together law enforcement professionals, experts, and policymakers to delve into crucial aspects of modern policing. With Union Home Minister Amit Shah as the Chief Guest and Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami as the Guest of Honor, the congress promises insightful discussions and showcases innovations in law enforcement.

(Source: Jagran)

Exploring Crucial Themes: The 49th AIPSC has selected six compelling themes for discussion, addressing vital challenges and developments in contemporary policing.

Policing in the 5G Era

49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) - Shaping Modern Policing

(Source: ETV Bharat)

- a. Implications of 5G Technology: The advent of 5G technology brings both opportunities and challenges for law enforcement agencies.
- b. Public Safety Concerns: Discussions will focus on how 5G technology impacts policing and public safety.

Narcotics: A Game-Changing Approach

- a. Innovative Approaches: The fight against narcotics demands innovative approaches.
- b. Evolving Landscape: Experts will discuss the evolving landscape of narcotics control and strategies to combat drug-related crimes.

Coordination between Police and Central Armed Police Forces (CAPFS)

- a. Maintaining Law and Order: Efficient coordination between the police and CAPFS is essential for maintaining law and order.
- b. Enhancing Cooperation: This theme explores ways to enhance cooperation and synergy between these vital forces.

National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB)

- a. Data Collection and Analysis: The NCRB plays a pivotal role in crime data collection and analysis.
- b. Shaping Law Enforcement: Discussions revolve around the NCRB's role in shaping law enforcement policies and strategies.

Internal Security & Social Media Challenges

- a. Social Media Impact: In an era of social media, maintaining internal security presents unique challenges.
- b. Addressing Emerging Threats: Experts will analyze the impact of social media on security and explore strategies to address emerging threats.

Community Policing

- a. Building Trust: Community policing fosters trust and collaboration between law enforcement and the community.
- b. Innovative Approaches: This theme will discuss best practices and innovative approaches to community policing.

Comprehensive Sessions and Dialogue

Each theme will feature dedicated sessions, breakout sessions, and related presentations, resulting in a total of nine sessions. Papers will be presented in each session, and moderators will provide their perspectives, considering all aspects of the theme.

Leveraging Technology

The 49th AIPSC demonstrates its forward-thinking approach by embracing technology for efficient management.

49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) - Shaping Modern Policing

(Source: The Indian Express)

- a. Event Invitation Management System: An innovative system has been created to streamline operations for the Uttarakhand Police.
- b. Security Measures: Robust security measures are implemented to ensure the confidentiality and security of event data.

Technical Exhibition

A concurrent technical exhibition showcases modern technology and innovations in policing.

- a. Enhancing Law Enforcement Capabilities: The exhibition features 30 stalls displaying state-of-the-art equipment aimed at enhancing law enforcement capabilities.
- b. Involving Students: Inviting students from various schools and colleges in Dehradun fosters interest in law enforcement technology.

BPR&D's Ongoing Commitment

The Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) plays a crucial role in organizing events like the AIPSC, providing a valuable platform for law enforcement professionals and experts.

49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) - Shaping Modern Policing

(Source: PIB)

a. Structural Improvement: The BPR&D assists police agencies in improving their fundamental structures, human resources, and processes.

b. Annual Activities: Organizing events like the AIPSC is a part of BPR&D's annual activities, contributing to knowledge exchange and policy development.

Fostering Interest: Students from various schools and colleges in Dehradun have been invited to the technical exhibition to foster interest in law enforcement technology.

Valuable Platform: Organizing events like the AIPSC is part of BPR&D's annual activities, providing a valuable platform for police officers of all ranks, technical experts, and forensic specialists to actively participate and contribute to discussions.

Union Home Minister's Central Regional Council Meeting

49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) - Shaping Modern Policing

Union Home Minister Amit Shah presides over the 24th meeting of the Central Regional Council, attended by Chief Ministers from neighboring states.

(Source: Jagran)

- a. Regional Governance and Collaboration: The meeting serves as a platform for collaboration and discussion on regional governance issues.
- b. Addressing Key Regional Challenges: Discussion on critical regional challenges, such as infrastructure development and security coordination.

Inauguration Highlights

Union Home Minister Amit Shah will launch three significant publications digitally:

- a. 49th All India Police Science Congress Compendium: A comprehensive compendium encapsulating the insights and discussions of the Congress.
- b. Police Science Journal: Published by the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D), this journal serves as a valuable repository of law enforcement knowledge.
- c. 'Marching with the Times': A book published by The Times of India Group, shedding light on Uttarakhand police's journey and achievements.

Participation and Expertise

A total of 106 participants, including Directors General (DGs) and Inspectors General (IGs) of police, alongside 19 subject experts, will actively engage in the Congress. Their diverse experiences and perspectives promise a rich exchange of ideas and strategies.

49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) - Shaping Modern Policing

A Forward-Thinking Event

The 49th All India Police Science Congress is more than just an event; it's a platform for the future of policing. It symbolizes the government's dedication to fostering innovation, collaboration, and excellence in the field of law enforcement. The themes explored and the publications launched underscore the commitment to staying ahead in a rapidly evolving world.

Outcomes and Implications

a. Strengthening Regional Cooperation: The Central Regional Council meeting strengthens regional cooperation, leading to shared solutions and efficient resource allocation.

b. Advancing Policing Practices: Insights and strategies discussed at the AIPSC can inform policy decisions and enhance law enforcement effectiveness.

The 49th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) is a testament to the commitment of law enforcement agencies in India to stay at the forefront of modern policing. With diverse themes and the integration of technology, the event aims to facilitate meaningful discussions and showcase innovations in law enforcement. The participation of Union Home Minister Amit Shah and Uttarakhand Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami underscores the importance of this congress in shaping the future of policing in India. It also highlights the collaborative efforts of the Bureau of Police Research and Development (BPR&D) in advancing the capabilities and effectiveness of law enforcement agencies across the country. The 49th AIPSC serves as a beacon of progress and innovation in the field of policing.

We would love to hear from you, dear readers. How did you like this blog? Did you gain an insight into today's topic? You can share your thoughts in the comment section below. KD Live will keep bringing to you more informative blogs on a daily basis. Stay tuned!