International Lawyers Conference 2023: Inauguration by PM Modi

The Prime Minister welcomed esteemed guests, including the Lord Chancellor of England, Mr. Alex Chalk, delegates from the Bar Association of England, representatives from Commonwealth and African countries, and individuals from all corners of India. In his address, he emphasized that this conference embodies the spirit of 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam,' showcasing India's rich tradition of unity in diversity. He also expressed gratitude to the Bar Association of India for spearheading this initiative.

The Guardians of India's Judicial System Shown at International Lawyers Conference

Highlighting the pivotal role of the legal fraternity in a nation's development, Prime Minister Modi underlined that the judiciary and the bar have long been the guardians of India's judicial system. He recalled how legal professionals played a significant part in India's struggle for independence, with luminaries like Mahatma Gandhi, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, and Jawaharlal Nehru among their ranks. Their collective experience and dedication helped solidify the foundation of modern India. Furthermore, India's impartial judicial system has earned global confidence.

Empowering Women through Legal Reforms

Prime Minister Modi acknowledged that this conference occurs at a momentous juncture when India has witnessed historic developments, such as the passage of the Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam. This law provides 33 per cent reservation for women in the Lok Sabha and Vidhan Sabha, paving the way for women-led development in India. He also highlighted India's recent accomplishments on the international stage, including hosting the G20 Summit and the successful landing of Chandrayaan 3 on the moon's south pole.

A Vision for 2047 at International Lawyers Conference

The Prime Minister conveyed India's aspiration to become a 'Viksit Bharat' (Developed India) by 2047. He stressed the importance of unbiased legal foundations to achieve this goal. He expressed confidence that the International Lawyers' Conference 2023 will be a resounding success, offering each nation the opportunity to learn from one another's best practices.

Global Challenges Require Global Solutions

Modi delved into the interconnectedness of today's world, emphasizing that many challenges transcend borders and jurisdictions. He called for a global approach to tackle issues like cyber terrorism, money laundering, and misuse of artificial intelligence, highlighting the need for a connected legal framework among nations.

Alternate Dispute Resolution and Simplification of Law

The Prime Minister acknowledged the increasing importance of Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) in resolving complex commercial disputes worldwide. He revealed that India has enacted a mediation act to systematize the informal tradition of dispute resolution and that Lok Adalats has successfully resolved approximately 7 lakh cases in the last six years.

Modi also touched upon the need to simplify legal language and make the law more accessible to citizens. He praised the Supreme Court of India for translating its judgments into four local languages, thus facilitating a monumental change in India's judicial system. He stated that the government is working to draft new laws in simpler language, exemplified by the Data Protection Law.

Leveraging Technology in Legal Reforms & Distinguished Attendees

In conclusion, Prime Minister Modi emphasized the importance of streamlining legal processes through technology, reforms, and innovative judicial procedures. He highlighted how technological advancements have opened new avenues for the legal profession and called for the legal community to harness these opportunities.

The event witnessed the presence of notable figures, including Chief Justice of India, Dr. D. Y. Chandrachud, Union Minister of Law and Justice, Shri Arjun Ram Meghwal, Attorney General of India, Shri R. Venkataramani, Solicitor General of India, Shri Tushar Mehta, Chairman, Bar Council of India, Shri Manan Kumar Mishra, and Lord Chancellor of the UK, Mr. Alex Chalk, among others.
