Solutions - Bank Easy Level Error Spotting Questions

Q:1 (1) When we say ‘a little’, we mean a small amount, but it’s enough whereas ‘little’ also means a small amount, but the amount is almost nothing. So in place of ‘a little’ it should be ‘little’ to make the sentence grammatically and contextually correct.

Q:2 (4) In D, ‘It’ is a third-person singular personal pronoun which is referred to the stress in the given sentence. Since, it is singular subject, hence the verb should also be singular. Therefore, ‘create’ should be changed to ‘creates’ to make the sentence grammatically correct.

Q:3 (5) The given sentence is error-free because a sentence is defined by the use of independent and dependent clauses, conjunction, and subordinates.

Q:4 (3) The error is in part C of the sentence due to wrong use of preposition. The preposition “by” should be replaced with “for” to make the sentence correct.

Q:5 (3) ‘I’ is always followed by a verb in its basic form. Therefore, ‘do’ must be written.

Q:6 (4) The fourth part of this sentence contains an error with the quantifier ‘few’. ‘Few’ is a quantifier used with plural countable nouns and ‘a few’ means some. The number of meteor showers is countable, so the correct choice will be ‘a few’.

Q:7 (4) The word “does” is wrong here instead it should be “do” as the statement is talking about human beings which is plural and therefore it should be “do” and not “does”.

Q:8 (3) The statement “D” seems to have an error in it. There is an error with the word “us”, the preposition ‘of’ must be used before ‘us’. The preposition ‘of’ is always used for belonging to, relating to, or connected with terms.

Q:9 (3) Part ‘c’ of the given sentence contains an error with the incorrect usage of preposition. The preposition ‘to’ needs to be replaced with ‘on’ because high pressure is applied on the carbon.

Q:10 (3) Statement “B” seems to have an error with the application of the singular form of “Disease” since the statement is depicting diseases in large no.

Q:11 (4) As everything refers to singular, then the BECOME will be Becomes.

Q:12 (2) Statement “A” seems to have an error in it with the application of “Disaster”. The statement depicts Global epidemics so it must be stating about natural disasters in plural form.

Q:13 (1) Statement “D” seems to have an error in it with “It” in here. It must be “Its” since it is stating about the millions “wake”.

Error Spotting Questions - 100 plus Difficulty Wise MCQs with Solutions

Q:14 (4) The first sentence contains an error in the second part with the incorrect usage of adjective i.e. 'much'. The correct adjective is 'many'. The second sentence contains an error of helping verb in the first part with the word 'would have' as it does not suit the sentence context. The correct helping verb is 'had' because sentence seems to be in past tense.

Q:15 (2) The first sentence contains an error in the third part with the incorrect usage of the helping verb i.e. 'has' as the organization mentioned in the sentence is a plural form. So, the helping verb has to be in plural form i.e. 'have'. The second sentence contains an error of 'it is' as the given sentence is not in question sentence. So, it must be 'is it

Solutions - Bank Moderate Level Error Spotting Questions

Q:1 (3) The use of 'have to' in part B indicates that the tropical cyclone is yet to come. But by reading part C, we can understand that people have already experienced the cyclone that has caused death and destruction. So, 'have had to' should be used to indicate that the incident has already occurred.

Q:2 (4) Sentence 'A' seems to have an error of singular-plural agreement. In the line: "Now, almost everyone expect a video call." The correct word should be 'expects' instead of 'expect'.

Q:3 (2) Parts 'B', 'D' and 'E' seem to be contextually and grammatically correct, but part 'C' does not seem to be coherent because of the preposition 'on' in the line. The actual preposition that suits there is 'by'.

Q:4 (5) The entire paragraph seems to be grammatically correct and contextually coherent.

Q:5 (1) The meeting is yet to be held, so we should use 'will'. So, sentence B is wrong. Also, 'going Friday' is wrong here. The usage of 'about' and 'with' is incorrect in sentence C. D talks about individuals who display unruly behavior; in such cases 'each' should be used. 'That' is used to add a descriptive clause. 'Which is home to close to 7 lakh Indians' should be used in E. The only correct sentence is Sentence A.

Q:6 (2) Statement "D" seems to have an error in it with the application of "The protection of mountains is also are key part", which should be "the protection of mountains in also a key part" as it states about one particular act.

Q:7 (3) Statement "D" seems to have an error with the application of "moons" which should be "moon's" instead. We use "apostrophe" as a punctuation mark (') used to indicate either possession.

Q:8 (2) Statement "B" seems to have an error with the application of "as far" which should be "as per".

Q:9 (1) In the given sentence the error lies in part A. The verb 'flee' itself means 'run away' from a place or situation of danger.' So, the use of 'away' together with 'flee' becomes redundant.

Q:10 (5) The given sentence does not have any grammatical or contextual errors.

Error Spotting Questions - 100 plus Difficulty Wise MCQs with Solutions

Q:11 (2) Part "A" in the given passage seems to be grammatically wrong as in the sentence the subject i.e. "the government" and the verb "need" are not in agreement with each other so, the error lies in here and by replacing it with "needs" in the sentence will make more grammatical sense out of it.

Q:12 (4) Part "C" seems to be making a grammatical mistake. So an error lies in this part as instead of "as", the preposition "with" will stand the best here as it is used to mean 'having' or 'possessing'.

Q:13 (1) Part "B" seems to have a grammatical error in it as after drawing an inference out of the entire statement it can be stated that there is a need of replacing 'at' with the word "every" in the sentence as it revolves around "giving every effort".

Q:14 (3) The "supply"(as mentioned in the statement) included more than one thing (indicating a plural form) which makes it a plural noun so this needs to be replaced with "supplies" which is its plural noun so as to make a correct grammatical sense out of it.

Q:15 (1) Error in sentence A: The first sentence contains an error in the first part with an incorrect usage of the determiner 'this' as the suitable determiner is 'these' because the noun is in plural form.

Error in sentence B: The second sentence also contains an error in the first part as the preposition 'of' should be replaced with article 'a'. The phrase 'a tiny moment' means 'for a very short period of time'.

Q:16 (3) Part C contains an error in the usage of the verb. The verb 'reached' is not appropriate as the sentence is in the present tense. The correct form of the verb which should be used in the sentence is 'reach'.

Q:17 (5) The given sentence is grammatically as well as contextually correct.

Q:18 (4) The preposition "in" is irrelevant according to the context of the sentence. The suitable preposition is 'on' as it is used to show the place of something.

Q:19 (1) Part 'A' contains an error of subject-verb agreement. The word 'measure' has been used in its singular form but the sentence demands it to be used in plural i.e. 'measures'.

Q:20 (5) The given sentence is grammatically as well as contextually correct.

Solutions - Bank Hard Level Error Spotting Questions

Q:1 (3) Sentences 'B', 'C' and 'E' do not contain any grammatical or contextual error. But, sentence 'D' appears to have a grammatical error (Singular-Plural agreement) as the word "is" in the sentence looks inappropriate. The word that should be used instead of 'is' is "are".

Q:2 (2) The error in part A is with the usage of 'must'. It should be replaced with 'would'. In part C definite article 'the' must replace indefinite article 'a'. In part D usage of 'than' is erroneous. It should be replaced with 'then'. As part B does not contain any error, the chosen option will be correct.

Error Spotting Questions - 100 plus Difficulty Wise MCQs with Solutions

Q:3 (3) The error lies in all the three sentences.

Sentence A :- We need to replace “Left” with “Had left” for making the statement grammatically correct.

Sentence B :- We need to replace “An” with “A” for making the statement grammatically correct.

Sentence C :-We need to replace “On” with “At” for making the statement grammatically correct.

Q:4 (3) When using ‘not only....but also’ in a sentence, parallelism should be followed. In the given sentence, we have used the verb ‘found’ after ‘not only’. So, the most suitable verb to be used after ‘but also’ is ‘said’.

Q:5 (2) In part I: ‘jolted along her reverie’ makes no sense. It should be replaced with ‘jolted out of her reverie’.

In part II: The use of the phrasal verb ‘cover for’ which means to provide an excuse or alibi is incorrect. It needs to be replaced with simply ‘cover’ or ‘cover-up’ implying an attempt to hide.

Q:6 (2) The error in part II of the sentence is that the abstract noun ‘equality’ is not a qualified noun and so, it should not take an article like ‘the’.

Q:7 (3) Part “A” seems to have an error in it with the application of “have”. “Have” is used with the pronouns I, you, we, and they, while “has” is used with he, she, and it. So, it should be “has” in here because the parliament is a singular noun.

Q:8 (5) In sentence A, the noun that follows is singular, therefore the singular form ‘has been’ should be used.

In sentence B, the preposition ‘over’ should be replaced by ‘in’ as it is used to locate a location.

In sentence C, the superlative degree of large i.e. ‘largest’ should be used .

In sentence D, the word ‘once’ should be replaced by ‘one’. As we can see, all the statements have an error.

Q:9 (2) The use of the preposition ‘for’ is contextually incorrect in this statement. Here, the sentence is talking about thinking of the Indians regarding the position of man and woman. So, in the given sentence, ‘to’ must be used.

Q:10 (1) In sentence A, remove ‘but’ as the sentence has already used the conjunction ‘although; which is used to show contradiction, so the use of ‘but’ is redundant.

In sentence B, replace ‘lose’ with ‘loss’ as the former is a verb and the latter is a noun. Here we need a noun here to be modified by the adjective ‘continuous’.

Q:11 (3) In sentence A, a singular or plural verb with nouns is used according to the sense which they convey. So, we have to use ‘face’ instead of ‘faces’ to make it a grammatically correct sentence. In sentence C, place ‘the’ before ‘UK’. We place the definite article ‘the’ before proper nouns when they refer to the names of descriptive names of countries such as the USA, the UAE, etc.

Q:12 (4) The error in part A is the use of the word ‘fewer’ which should be replaced by ‘less’. In part B, the preposition ‘in’ must be replaced by the preposition ‘of’. In part C the error is the erroneous use of the word ‘desperate’. It should be replaced by ‘disparate’.

Error Spotting Questions - 100 plus Difficulty Wise MCQs with Solutions

Q:13 (3) In sentence B, replace the noun 'danger' with the adjective 'dangerous' as it is modifying the noun 'virus'.

In sentence C, replace 'determined' with 'determine' as the infinitive construction. To+verb always take the base form of the verb.

Q:14 (5) In sentence A, replace 'much' with 'many' as the noun 'people' is countable and it can be modified by 'many'. 'Much' is only used to modify uncountable nouns.

Q:15 (4) In sentence B, the sentence has an error with respect to the degree of adjective. Adjective 'firm' already uses its comparative degree i.e., 'firmer', thus use of 'more' before firmer is incorrect.

Q:16 (3) In sentence A, replaced 'proved' with 'prove' as the modal verb will always take the base form of the main verb following it. In sentence B, replace 'engaged' with 'engage', as the infinitive construction "to + verb" always takes the base form of the verb.

Q:17 (2) Statement "C" seems to have an error with the application of "been" in here. It should be "being" instead.

Q:18 (3) Seems to have an error with the absence of "ago" word there. Hence, an error lies in Option 3, i.e. A.

Q:19 (1) Correct the emboldened part of the statement by putting the correct article 'The' before the nation. All other fragments are correct in all aspects.

Q:20 (2) Correct the emboldened part of the statement by changing the preposition from 'in' to 'on' to make the sentence grammatically correct as the farmers have decided to put pressure on the central government.
