SSC CGL Marking Scheme 2024 - Key Points to Remember

There's no sectional cut-off in the SSC CPO exam. Your cumulative score from both papers determines your rank in the merit list.

The PE&MT doesn't involve a written exam. You need to qualify for the physical tests and medical examination to progress further in the selection process.

Since there's negative marking, prioritize answering questions you're confident about. Avoid random guessing, as it can significantly affect your score.

Allocate sufficient time for each section in Paper-1. Don't get stuck on difficult questions; move on and revisit them if time permits.

Before submitting your answer sheet, double-check your marked answers to eliminate silly mistakes.

By wielding the knowledge of the SSC CPO marking scheme like a weapon and employing these strategic maneuvers, you can optimize your score and significantly improve your chances of securing a coveted position in the Central Police Organizations. Remember, consistent preparation and a well-crafted approach to the exam are the hallmarks of success.

SSC CGL Marking Scheme 2024 - Marks Normalization

Now that you are aware of the SSC CPO Marking Scheme 2024, it's essential to grasp the concept of marks normalization. The SSC has issued a notice, No.1-1/2018-P&P-I dated 07-02-2019, outlining the formula to be used for normalization. Additionally, candidates holding National Cadet Corps (NCC) certificates (as of 01.08.2024) are eligible for bonus marks in Paper I and Paper II, which are added to their normalized scores according to the SSC CPO Marking Scheme 2024.

S No. Type of NCC Certification Bonus Marks in each Paper I and Paper II
