Along with the details on SSC MTS and Havaldar Exam Pattern 2024, this blog aims to provide you with a comprehensive timeline.

SSC MTS & Havaldar Exam Pattern 2024 - Stage 1

The SSC MTS and Havaldar Exam Pattern 2024 has two parts: a computer test and a physical test (only for some positions). The computer test is most important right now, so let's focus on that:

- It's actually two smaller tests in one, and you have to take both.
- Each test lasts 45 minutes and has questions worth 3 marks each.
- Here's the good news: there's no penalty for guessing on the first test!
- But for the second test, you lose 1 point for every wrong answer.
- In case if the candidate is disabled, he/she will get 60 minutes for each test instead of 45.

Furthermore, we have included a section from the official SSC MTS Notification 2023 below for your reference, since the SSC MTS Notification 2024 is yet to be released:

Part	Subject	Number of Questions/ Maximum Marks	Time Duration (For all four Parts)
Session-I			45 Minutes (60 Minutes for candidates eligible for scribes as per para 8)
I	Numerical and Mathematical Ability	20/60
II	Reasoning Ability and Problem Solving	20/60
Session-II			45 Minutes (60 Minutes for candidates eligible for scribes as per para 8)
I	General Awareness	25/75
II	English Language and Comprehension	25/75

We will elaborate on each subject's topics in the SSC MTS Syllabus 2024 segment below. However, for now, let's progress to the next step in the exam journey- PET or PST.

SSC MTS & Havaldar Exam Pattern 2024 - Stage 2

Secondly, in the SSC MTS and Havaldar Exam Pattern 2024, the Physical Standard Test (PST) or the Physical Endurance Test (PET) plays a crucial role. After successfully completing and qualifying the CBE, you must undergo the PST or PET. It is essential to note that clearing PST/PET is mandatory if your aspiration is to become a havaldar in the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIN) or the Central Bureau of Narcotics (CBN). Let's delve into the details of each:

Physical Standards for Test

The PST serves as an eligibility criterion, as it sets standard requirements for the following:

- Height
- Chest
- Weight

These criteria differ for men and women. Below, we've provided a table to illustrate the specific measurements for height, chest, and weight required for PST.

Details	Male	Female
Height(in cm)	157.5	152
Unexpanded Chest (in cm)	81	-
Expanded Chest (in cm)	86	-
Weight (in kg)	-	48

Now that you have a clear understanding of the physical standards you need to meet, let's proceed to explore the components of the Physical Efficiency Test (PET).

Physical Efficiency Test

As the name implies, this test assesses the fitness levels of candidates who have successfully cleared the Computer Based Examination and qualified for the PST. Let's delve into the details:

Firstly, for Male Candidates, the PET includes the following test:

- Running 1600 meters in 15 minutes

Secondly, for Female Candidates, the PET includes the following test:

- Running 1 kilometer in 20 minutes

Additionally, if you are 12 weeks pregnant during the PET test, you will be temporarily declared unfit for examination. However, your vacancy will be secured, and you will be re-examined six weeks after delivery, or earlier if you provide a medical certificate of fitness from a registered medical professional.

Candidates with specified disabilities may be exempted from the Physical Efficiency Test. Furthermore, please take note of the following:

S. No.	Suitable category for benchmark disability for post of Havaldar	Exemption in PET/PST
1.	HH	No exemption
2.	OA	No exemption
3.	OL	May be exempted from Walking
4.	OAL	May be exempted from Walking
5.	LC	May be exempted from Walking
6.	AAV	No exemption However. If due to acid attack the candidates suffer from orthopaedic disability i.e. OA, OL, OAL, then above exemption for OA , OL and OAL will apply
7.	MD involving above categories	Above exemption for HH ,OA , OL , OAL , LC , and AAV will apply
Abbreviations used: HH = Hard of Hearing, OA= One Arm, OL= One Leg, OAL= One Arm & One Leg, LC= Leprosy Cured, AAV = Acid Attack Victim, MD = Multiple Disabilities.
