The idea of World Chess Day traces its origins to the establishment of the International Chess Federation (FIDE) on July 20, 1924, in Paris, France. FIDE was created to organize international chess competitions, promote the game globally, and regulate the rules of chess. Since its inception, FIDE has played a pivotal role in popularizing chess, organizing world championships, and supporting chess education initiatives.

The United Nations recognized the significance of chess by proclaiming July 20th as World Chess Day in 2019, acknowledging the role of chess in promoting dialogue, understanding, and mutual respect among nations. This recognition underscores chess's value not only as a competitive sport but also as a tool for building friendships and fostering peace.
