Madhav Mishra AIR-2 (SSC CGL 2022)

Madhav Mishra, who hails from Darahar village in Bahadurpur block of Darbhanga district in Bihar, has secured an all-India rank second, bringing laurels and excitement to his family and the entire nation. The Staff Selection Commission released the results for the 2022 examination recently. Madhav is appointed as an Assistant Section Officer in the Central Secretariat Service, Delhi.

Madhav has given credits for his success to the unwavering support of his family members. His father, Dilip Kumar Mishra, is an employee at Life Insurance Corporation. He mentions the significant role played by his father, mother, Kavita Mishra, and grandfather, Vachaspati Mishra, in his achievement. Everyone in the family and the entire village were elated with the celebratory news.

Madhav, who belongs to a rural part of India, never considered it a limitation in his preparation. Regardless of one's location in the country, access to study materials, courses, and platforms is not limited by distance. With the convenience of online courses, individuals can learn from the comfort of their homes without having to travel to places like Mukherjee Nagar in Delhi.

Madhav stated that by utilizing the internet in a productive manner, one can prepare for these highly competitive exams from home. He shared the fundamentals of his success, in which he gives utmost importance to solving the previous year's questions while talking about his strategy. These papers are very important in understanding the pattern and trends of the SSC exam. It allows one to become familiar with the question style. Solving mock test papers holds the most significance.

He stated that consistent hard work is the key to excelling in any competitive examination. It is important to understand that these exams involve a lengthy process and multiple attempts. Getting demotivated on the journey is inevitable, and thus it is crucial not to lose hope and always remember the motivation behind the desire to crack the examination. Madhav himself failed the SSC CHSL exam three times before clearing the CGL on his first attempt. He learned to embrace the mistakes he made in earlier exams and improved upon them to achieve this success. He conveys this message to all the aspirants, that all the failures provide valuable experience and learning opportunities. One must not get disheartened by these and perceive them as stepping stones toward success. Madhav's next aim is to clear the UPSC examination.
