Mohit Chaudhary AIR-1 SSC CGL 2022

Mohit Chaudhary, a resident of Kishangarh city in the Ajmer district of Rajasthan, has been awarded the first position in the Combined Graduate Level (CGL) Recruitment Examination-2022 by the Staff Selection Commission (SSC) New Delhi. He has succeeded with flying colors and made his home town and the whole nation incredibly proud. According to the notification released, more than 36 lakh candidates applied for different posts offered by this examination, out of which ranks for nearly 30,000 posts were released by the commission.

Mohit has been shortlisted for the post of Income Tax Officer under the Ministry of Finance. Mohit has credited this proud achievement and pleasant feeling to his parents, teacher, and coaching institute. His father, Prabhulal Jaat, serves as a Subedar in the Indian Army, currently posted in Jodhpur, and his mother, Lalita, is a homemaker. Mohit's education has been done in many cities due to his father's transferable postings. He, like his father, also wished to join the defense forces and even cleared the written examination, but unfortunately couldn't get through the interview. Mohit started preparing for the SSC CGL after completing his BTech in mechanical engineering in Pune. He proved his dedication and hard work on the second attempt itself. Proud of their son's success, his parents told me that once Mohit left a job offering a package of Rs. 3.5 lakh to prepare for this examination, and today they couldn't be more proud of him.

Mohit attributed his success to 12-hour self-study every day and online coaching. He said that he gave up his smartphone and used a keypad one instead, and he was off social media during the preparation. He focused equally on the four subjects, Mathematics, English, reasoning, and GK. Mohit said that he has studied for SSC CGL 2022 under the guidance of Gagan Pratap, a Mathematics teacher. His way of explaining math questions is very easy and time-saving. This helped in solving the questions quickly. He also mentioned the important role played by the 'Phool-Patti wali class-based current affairs module by Utkarsh classes. He is currently preparing for the UPSC CSE. Mohit gave a message to his fellow aspirants, "the best guidance is necessary for success in competitive exams, but at the same time, focus on the goal with determination till the end and make the right strategy." It is important to stay focused and embark on the journey with perseverance and confidence.
