

Analytical Reasoning Questions Overview

Analytical Reasoning Questions have a good weightage in the Ssc Cgl Exam and the type of question asked in Ssc Cgl exam is similar to the question mentioned below. It has been solved and explained by KD Live Experts under the guidance of Neetu Mam and they have tried to elaborate the concept used in Analytical Reasoning Questions.

Question On Analytical Reasoning

A situation is given, followed by two conclusions I and II. Read the situation and both conclusions carefully and select the correct answer. Situation: Renewable energy comes from natural sources that replace themselves more quickly than they are used up. Examples of such sources that are continuously replenished are the sun and the wind. There are many different types of renewable energy available to us. The government has proposed a new program to boost renewable energy sources. Conclusions: I. It is vital to lessen reliance on nonrenewable energy sources. II. The new plan will greatly increase the use of renewable energy sources.

Difficulty : Moderate

Average Time : 55 Seconds

Analytical Reasoning Questions Options

1. Neither I nor II can be concluded
2. Only II can be concluded
3. Only I can be concluded
4. Both I and II can be concluded

Analytical Reasoning Questions Solution

The correct answer is Option 3 i.e. Only I can be concluded

Conclusions:

- I. It is vital to lessen reliance on non-renewable energy sources.
- II. The new plan will greatly increase the use of renewable energy sources.

Conclusion I is true because the government suggests a need to advance renewable energy sources, which may be viewed as a move away from increasing reliance on non-renewable energy sources.

Since it is possible that the new policy will not result in a material increase in the use of renewable energy sources, II may not always be true. While the policy attempts to promote renewable energy sources, how well it actually does so relies on a number of variables, including the extent to which the public and industry adopt it.

Therefore, in this instance, only I is true.

Hence, the correct answer is Only I can be concluded.
