Analytical Reasoning Questions Options

2. Only II follows
3. Only I follows
4. Neither I nor II follows
5. Either I or II follows

Analytical Reasoning Questions Solution

The correct answer is Option 3 i.e. Only I follows

I. Participants at Arogya Manthan 2023 will include stakeholders, policymakers, and experts in the healthcare sector. Valid (This assumption is valid because it is reasonable to assume that an event like Arogya Manthan, organized to commemorate healthcare milestones, would attract participants who are knowledgeable about and invested in the healthcare sector.)

II. Arogya Manthan 2023 will exclusively focus on discussing healthcare schemes within India and will not cover any international healthcare topics. Not Valid (This assumption is invalid because the statement does not provide information about the scope of the event beyond commemorating the mentioned healthcare schemes. It's possible that the event might include discussions on international healthcare topics or collaborations, but the statement doesn't confirm or deny this, making the assumption invalid.)

Hence, the correct answer is Only I follows.
