Analytical Reasoning Questions Solution

The correct answer is Option 2 i.e. I is the cause and II is its possible effect

I. The Kapol Co-operative Bank Limited faced concerns regarding inadequate capital and earning prospects.

This statement indicates that the bank had issues related to its capital (likely referring to insufficient capital reserves) and earning prospects (suggesting the bank's ability to generate income and profitability). These issues raised concerns about the bank's financial health and stability.

II. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) cancelled the license of The Kapol Co-operative Bank Limited.

Due to concerns regarding the bank's financial health, specifically its inadequate capital and earning prospects, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) decided to cancel the bank's license. This action was taken to safeguard the interests of depositors and to ensure the stability and integrity of the banking system.

The cause (financial concerns) led to the effect (cancellation of the bank's license) as a regulatory measure to address the bank's financial challenges and protect the interests of depositors and the broader financial system. Based on these statements, it can be concluded that Statement II is the effect of Statement I.

Hence, the correct answer is I is the cause and II is its possible effect.
