It has been solved and explained by KD Live Experts under the guidance of Neetu Mam and they have tried to elaborate the concept used in Analytical Reasoning Questions.

Question On Analytical Reasoning

In the question below, two statements (I) and (II) are given. These statements may be either independent causes or may be effects of independent causes or a common cause. One of these statements may be the effect of the other statement. Read both the statements and decide which of the following answer choices correctly depicts the relationship between these two statements. I. Sri Lanka is battered by the worst-ever economic crisis in its post-independence history. II. Sri Lanka's allocation of its GDP to education has become one of the lowest in the South Asian region.

Difficulty : Moderate

Average Time : 52 Seconds

Analytical Reasoning Questions Options

1. Statement I is the cause, and statement II is its effect.
2. Statement II is the cause, and statement I is its effect.
3. Both the statements I and II are independent causes.
4. Both the statements I and II are effects of some common cause.

Analytical Reasoning Questions Solution

The correct answer is Option 1 i.e. Statement I is the cause, and statement II is its effect.

Statement I presents us with a cause - Sri Lanka is facing the worst-ever economic crisis in its post-independence history.

Statement II presents us with its effect - low allocation of the country's GDP to education.

Hence, the correct answer is statement I is the cause, and statement II is its effect.
