2. Statement II is the cause and statement I is its effect
3. Both statements I and II are independent causes
4. Both the statements I and II are effects of independent causes
5. Both the statements I and II are effects of some common cause

Analytical Reasoning Questions Solution

The correct answer is Option 1 i.e Statement I is the cause and statement II is its effect

Understanding

Statements:

I. The government has decided to give tax benefits in small savings for investments and benefit accruals. However, all withdrawals of such savings are to be taxed.

II. People have been investing more in small savings than in the equity market to avail of maximum tax benefits.

Since the government decided to give tax benefits in small savings for investments and benefit accruals, people decided to invest in small savings instead of other investment schemes.

Hence the correct answer is Statement I is the cause and statement II is its effect.
