The correct answer is Option 4 i.e. Both I and II is implicit

Understanding

Assumptions:

I. Mid day meals acts as an attractive incentive for parents to send their children to school with the sole hope that their young ones receive at least one plate full of meal for day — Implicit ( The scheme is introduced for the sake of parents sending their wards to school so that they can get education.)

II. Mid-day meal schemes helps children enacted to improve socialisation among caste — Implicit ( As students from different backgrounds come to study together).

III. The mid day meal will cost the government more on food rather on the education — Not implicit ( Not defined as per statement.)

Hence, the correct answer is Both I and II is implicit.
