Comprehension On Analytical Reasoning Questions

Direction: In each of the following questions, a statement is given followed by three assumptions numbered I, II, and III. You have to decide which assumption(s) are implicit in the given statement.

Question On Analytical Reasoning

Statement: Vocational subjects should be made a part of higher education degrees. Also, more institutes and universities for-vocational training should come up. At the same time, society should shun its biased views against these courses and realize the need of the hour to have professional courses. Assumptions: I. Education courses provide basic degrees with no specific specialization in trade while, vocational courses train students for the particular trade. II. There is a mismatch between skills required for the job and skills that the students possess after completing a vocational course. III. Vocational education is any sort of formal training program that trains students to work in a particular trade.

Difficulty : Moderate

Average Time : 67 Seconds

Analytical Reasoning Questions Options

1. Only I is implicit
2. Only II is implicit
3. Only III is implicit
4. Either I or III is implicit
5. Neither I, II nor III is implicit

Analytical Reasoning Questions Solution

The correct answer is Option 4 i.e. Either I or III is implicit

Understanding

Assumptions

I. Education courses provide basic degrees with no specific specialization in trade while, vocational courses train students for a particular trade — Implicit (As Vocational courses are made to provide training for a particular trade for instance Photography).

II. There is a mismatch between skills required for the job and skills that the student possesses after completing a vocational course — Does not implicit (As there is a match not mismatch hence, not defined).

III. Vocational education is any sort of formal training program that trains students to work in a particular trade — Implicit (Same as assumption I).

Hence, the correct answer is Either I or III is implicit.
