Concept/Grammar rules	Application	Meaning of other words
-----------------------	-------------	------------------------

The query is about finding a connector that can join the two sentences to make a coherent statement.

The former sentence indicates an action whereas the latter one provides the purpose of the action taken.

Among the given options, option 1 provides the appropriate answer as 'in order to' is used to indicate the purpose. 'So that' also shows purpose but it needs a subject after it which is not mentioned in the second sentence. Moreover, 'in order to' ends with 'to' which takes the base form of a verb after it, and 'allow' fulfills this condition.

Hence, option 1 is the correct answer.

Instead of; in place of
Because of; by reason of
In spite of; it shows a contrast
So that; it shows the purpose
