Sentence Connectors Questions Options

1. Although China is a global economic powerhouse, poverty levels remain high in some regions, despite recent government initiatives to address the issue.
2. Despite recent government initiatives to reduce poverty, China's reputation as a global economic powerhouse has suffered due to high poverty levels in some regions.
3. Recent government initiatives in China have shown progress in reducing poverty, despite the country's reputation as a global economic powerhouse.
4. D) While poverty remains an issue in some regions of China, recent government initiatives have been successful in combating the problem in other areas.
5. China's reputation as a global economic powerhouse has not been affected by the issue of poverty in some regions, thanks to recent government initiatives.

Sentence Connectors Questions Solution

The correct answer is Option 1 i.e. Although China is a global economic powerhouse, poverty levels remain high in some regions, despite recent government initiatives to address the issue.

The correct answer is option 1, which effectively connects the two ideas while emphasizing the struggle to combat poverty despite China's global economic status.

- Option 2 is incorrect because it incorrectly implies that the initiatives have been unsuccessful.
- Option 3 is incorrect because it does not emphasize the contrast between China's economic power and its struggle with poverty.
- Option 4 is incorrect because it implies that the issue is only present in certain regions, rather than in the country as a whole.
- Option 5 is incorrect because it incorrectly suggests that China's reputation has not been affected by poverty in some regions.
