Sentence Jumbles Questions Solution

The correct answer is option 4, i.e. RPSQ.

1. Sentence R Starts the passage with it's context based on Indian democracy and the critical role of women's political awakening.
2. Sentence P provides a direct continuation to the previous statement. This is evident from the repetition of the phrase 'political awakening'.
3. Sentence S adjoins more details to the information presented by the previous point. It gets joined directly through the usage of the word 'moreover'.
4. Sentence Q can be treated as a conclusion because the previous lines were talking somewhat idealistically, whereas this current statement offers a different side to the on-going narrative, that is talking realistically within an Indian context about the conditions of women.

This arrangement is correct because it follows a sequential narrative where all the details/information gets added without losing the fluency in narration or any sense/meaning in the whole passage.
