2. RQSP
3. QSRP
4. QRPS

Sentence Jumbles Questions Solution

The correct answer is option 1, i.e. PRQS.

1. Sentence P starts with a point that goes on to justify what the first given statement of the passage is saying, hence will appear at first place.
2. Sentence R goes on to talk specifically of the current time's limitations. As an addition of information this shall appear at next place.
3. Sentence Q adds more information to lay emphasis on the point made by the first statement, which is why it shall appear at third place. It also can be treated as a direct continuation to the previous statement.
4. Sentence S talks about the developing conditions of the speaker, that is about his lowering levels of confidence for the matter. This can be treated as a conclusive point to the narrative before the last/sixth line of the passage.

This arrangement follows a sequential manner where the various events, information, details get added without losing the context/meaning of the passage and fluency of narration.
